

Passenger Checklist before Boarding

1. 28 weeks or less pregnant passengers only can board.
2. If there are any signs of childbirth or pregnancy-related complications, passenger must submit a doctor's note and need to get confirmation in advance whether passenger can board. If passenger is not suitable for safe travel, boarding shall not be possible.
3. Donghae and Vladivostok route takes approximately 24 hours, and depending on the weather, the ship may shake severely. These environments can adversely affect the body of pregnant person. In addition, medical staff (doctors, nurses) are not on board, and sufficient medical equipment and medicines are not prepared.
4. Even in an emergency situation that requires medical examination and treatment, it is only possible to transfer to a medical institution after arriving in the destination country. Therefore, it takes considerable time to receive diagnosis and treatment.
